

TACTICAL/TECHNICAL PLAY

The South African Football Philosophy:
TACTICAL/TECHNICAL

- Learning the complete range of ball skills.
- Ability to combine intricate movement related to rapid direction change, feinting, disguise with technique of dribbling, passing and scoring.
- Capacity to apply all ball and movement skills in conditions of intense marking pressure ('No space, no time' game situations).
- Use of both feet.

The South African Football Philosophy:
TACTICAL/TECHNICAL

- Competent to take risk by using difficult/complex techniques in decisive play situations.
- Aware of tactical/ psychological benefits of ball skill superiority against opponents of superior physicality/aggression.
- Creative aptitude in the application of techniques.
- Discover and develop new skills/techniques.